

Head Start: Social & Emotional Well-being

WHAT:

It is a child's developing capacity to express and regulate emotions, form trusting relationships, explore, and learn—all in the cultural context of family and community.

WHY:

The well-being of children and the adults that care for them is essential for school readiness.

In Head Start we use stories and modeling to teach children about:

- Problem solving, conflict resolution, positive reinforcement
- Self-regulation
- Positive social interactions
- Expressing and labeling feelings within themselves and peers

What can families expect from Head Start?

A program-wide culture that promotes children's mental health, social and emotional well-being, and overall health.
